Known as the “world’s greatest news aggregator”, Google Reader has been a pioneer in online news reading ever since its first release. Even though the Google Reader service is no longer being supported, there are plenty of other great RSS news readers that you can choose from. K-News is a paid program, but it has all the features that make Google Reader a preferred news reading tool. In addition to being able to subscribe to various RSS feeds, you can opt for a cloud storage service, enabling you to access your content no matter where you are. The subscription feature lets you select news feeds from various categories, such as “Business”, “Entertainment”, “Health”, “Politics” and “Technology”. You can also add the RSS feeds that you get from specific websites, such as NYTimes, NYPost, Daily Telegraph, Reuters, and many others. K-News provides you with the option of subscribing to a single news feed or to several feeds at once. This way, you can collect and have easy access to all the articles you need at a particular time. The cloud storage option works for all your subscribed RSS news feeds and lets you sync all your news with the cloud. A separate list, accessible from the app’s menu, has the most popular news headlines. You can always check these headlines for updates, enabling you to follow the latest news articles without having to subscribe to all the feeds. You can switch between two different views of your subscribed news feeds. The simplest option is the “Thematic view”, which lists all the feeds from a single category. The “Channel view” lets you choose from a number of different categories, such as “USA”, “Sports”, “Entertainment”, “Technology”, “Politics”, “Science”, “Business” or “Health”. K-News lets you preview the contents of each feed before you subscribe to it. This feature has been enhanced over the last few versions and enables you to quickly decide if the new feed will be useful to you or not. You can keep track of the various news articles published by the feeds you subscribe to. This can be useful when you are trying to read all the articles posted on a specific website. The app also lets you choose the most recent articles to read.

What’s happening in the world is of utmost importance if you want to understand the political and sociological events. BBC news feeder is a small utility that brings the most recent news to your screen. The gadget is quite easy to handle, thanks to the intuitive interface and the clean layout. The widget displays several news articles that you can scroll through until you find a title that is interesting to read. Once you click on the headline, the app opens the page with the help of the default web browser. The program lets you choose one of the available news feeds. For instance, you can receive the articles listed on the front page of the website or those filed under various categories, such as “World”, “UK”, “England”, “Northern Ireland”, “Scotland”, “Wales”, “Business”, “Politics”, “Health”, “Education”, “Technology” or “Entertainment”. Furthermore, you can have the news appear in a smaller window, leaving more clear space on the desktop. Furthermore, the frame’s opacity levels can be modified as well. From the context menu of this app, you can set it to always be displayed on top of other programs. Additionally, the frame’s opacity levels can be modified as well. The bottom line is that BBC news feeder is a great tool for those who want to keep track of the most important news stories.
